F O R E W A R D

There comes a time in everybody's life when they must choose their destination. As the school year of 1965-1966 is coming to a close, Central's ninth graders will be leaving to continue their education at a challenging stage.

High school is the high point of everyone's education. There you will take courses and face problems which may determine your life's work. Ambition is the key to your success. Any one can be a doctor, but only the ambitious can make good ones.

Ambition will carry you to graduation from high school and probably send you on to college. In college you must reach a goal, just as you did in high school and junior high. If you fail to reach this goal you will lose one of the greatest opportunities in your life.

Not everyone is the same. You may not be a brain or a whiz when it comes to a certain subject, but that doesn't mean you won't be good at something else. Many great men were handicapped in something, but each and everyone of them had one thing in which they majored. Take a baseball player; just because he doesn't make straight A's or B's in arithmetic, doesn't mean he can't be a great ball player.

Older people label today's teenagers as wild, irresponsible, and most of all, not ambitious. The adults realize, we will be the next doctors, lawyers, and teachers. We will be the ones that will take care of their grandchildren and their grandchildren's children. Now, we must face up to our responsibilities and prove to them that we are capable of growing up and facing the higher stages of life. There will be choosing a career, going to high school, and then on to college to fulfill that goal towards our destinations.

DEDICATION

"I am not a teacher, only a fellow-traveler of whom you asked the way. I pointed ahead--ahead of myself as well as of you."

Shaw

Eight teachers of Central who have been here for 25 years of more have shown the way for many thousands of students. These teachers are; Mr. Stanley Boertman, Miss Harriette Ebeling, Mr. Theron Fager, Mr Matthew Hubbard, Mr. Paul Rhodes, Mr. William Stoner, Mrs. Alma Williams, Miss Mary Williams, These eight teachers have been here for a total of 255 years.

The journalism class hopes these teachers have enjoyed their stay here at Central and because of their service we have dedicated this Annual to them.

by Kaye Minnich
Assistant Editor, Reflector

Dear Pupils:

With this issue of the Annual Reflector we salute each of you who will be leaving Central Junior for high school as well as those of you who will be advancing to the next grade level and wish you success in all your future undertakings. Please realize that you are living your lives now and if you intend to make something good of yours, this is the time and place to do so. We believe you can and that you will.

Good luck to all of you and have a happy vacation.

Irving W. Burtt, Principal

There is an old saying that "He who dances must pay the piper." This is really just another way of saying that we are responsible for all our actions and must pay in some way for them.

RESPONSIBILITY is one of the big "R's" that too many people today disregard completely. We need to learn to be accountable for all that we do and to pay the penalty for inadequate behavior or to accept the rewards of satisfactory actions. After we are able to prove that we are responsible for our actions, we may then earn the RESPECT which is another of the important "R's" of an adequate citizen. These two "R's" of RESPONSIBILITY and RESPECT for self and others add up to the third "R" of RELIABILITY-the honor award which we have created.

May you always measure up to the best of these three "R's"!

Sincerely yours,
Josephine M. Klempnow
Dean of Students

With this Reflector, the school year comes to an end. For those of you who have completed your junior high school education and are going to high school my best wishes go with you.

Students coming back to Central, I wish you a happy and enjoyable vacation and a readiness to return to school in September.

JOURNALISM CLASS

by Stephanie Schultz

This years Journalism class consisted of 22 eighth and ninth graders. Their supervisor was Mr. Dunne.

The editor of the monthly paper was, Stephanie Schultz and the assistant editor was Kaye Minnich. At the end of the first semester Stephanie gave up her job as editor to Pat Laeding, and Kaye gave hers to Kristine Hackett. Both, Stephanie and Kaye continued their work as assistant editors of the Annual Reflector.

Another important person in the journalism class was Nola Stark who held the position of typing editor. Nola did typing for both the monthly and Annual Reflector.

MAINTENANCE FORCE

by Mike Murray

Here, at Central, there are nine people who keep our halls, and grounds clean, our buildings warm, and "fix-up" things. The following should be congratulated for their work this past year.

- Mr. Douglas MacDonald, Engineer
- Mr. Belden Place, Fireman
- Mr. John Morrell, Foreman
- Mrs. Florence Thomas, Custodian
- Mrs. Marguerite Judd, Custodian
- Mr. Mike Cook, Custodian
- Mr. Oakley Bracken, Custodian
- Mr. Robert Shepherd, Custodian
- Mr. Robert LaCross, Custodian

SERVICE TYPISTS

by Mary Lawrence

This year there were 17 service typists. These typists helped Mr. Rhodes and Mr. Van Ochten with the preparation and typing of quizzes, reports, etc. for many teachers, and they also help the typing teachers with the daily checking of the other students typing papers.

This years service typists were: Ruth Blakley, Kathy Blondin, Kathy Fritz, Sonya Jackson, Ruth Johnson, Patricia Jones, Theresa Jaure, Doris Meredith, Margaret Ortiz, Dora Primus, Diana Rundell, Stephanie Schultz, Judy Sexton, Dixie Slavin, Nola Stark, Janice Troxell, and Melanie Woods.

LIBRARY STAFF

by Billy Holmes

This years library staff, under the supervision of Miss Miles, consisted of 12 students. These helpers worked on three different shifts. They were:

MORNING:

T. Woods, K. Hulme, D. McClure, J. Enciso

EVENING:

B. Williams, K. Walle, J. Gamon, Y. Boyd

LUNCH:

J. Hain, J. Pogoreski

Their main jobs were to take care of the desk, shelve the books, find cards for books, sort cards, do some work on showcases, and on general appearances of the books.

CLASS WILL

by David Reisig

We the ninth grade class of 1965-66, being of sound mind and strong body, make this last will and testament. We leave the items listed below to the future students and faculty of Central Jr. High School.

Vernor Clay wills his girls to Nat Kemp.

Terry Bunker leaves a nine lb. fruit cake in his locker to any hungry person.

Melanie Woods leaves $1.00 to any who one will take her seat in civics.

Howard Gould wills his sports editor job to Mike Murray.

Billy Holmes wills his art ability to Willie Fenn.

Mary Lawrence wills her brains to any one who can make the grade.

Edward Taylor wills his ability in getting along with all the girls to any great lover.

John Carter wills his basketball ability to his cousin David Carter.

Frank Vasquez wills his wood ability to Frank Torres.

Jerry Delgado wills his hair to Joe Olivares.

Joyce Brooks wills her playing in the halls to Naomi Snead.

Peggy Williams wills all her boy friends to Maureen Allen.

Dorothy Skabardis wills her German book and seat to any unlucky student taking German.

Pat Cameron wills her Latin book to any unlucky 8th grader taking Latin.

Keith Marx wills his ability of getting in trouble with Mr. Cummings to anybody.

Lorie Elliott wills her great ability of charming boys to any charming 8th grade girl.

Nola Stark wills her typing ability to Beverly Stephens.

Kaye Minnich wills her service squad post to Chris Cronk.

Sue Froelich wills her Latin book to any unlucky student who takes Latin.

Cathy Teachout leaves her German book to any eighth grader taking German next year.

Ruth Johnson leaves her all "A" card for everyone to see.

Howard Liddell leaves his many girl friends and good looks to Cleveland Burkes.

Dixie Slavin leaves her algebra seat to Debbie Sweet.

Sam Vega wills his ability to skip and get away with it to any body who can do the same.

NOON DUTY

by Melanie Woods

During the noon hour when the service squad is off duty, the noon duty monitors take over to keep order in the halls.

Mr. Gerber was in charge of the monitors, whose duties consisted of keeping noise and roughhousing to a minimum, preventing running in the halls, and clearing the halls by 12:20.

SERVICE SQUAD

by Nola Stark

Before and after each class the Service Squad members are to be on their assigned posts to keep order in the halls. If someone refuses to do as the Service Squad member tells him, the Squad member may issue him or her a ticket which will result with an 8th hour for 8th or 7th graders or a 9th hour for a 9th grader.

This years Captains of the Service Squad were Walter Marsh and Tom Woods. Their Lieutenants were Sue Hall, Sheri Hawkins, Ruth Johnson, Rick Perry, Joey Enciso, Dora Primus, and Sophia Zaharoes.

The head of the Service Squad this year was Mr. Gerber.

Members of the Service Squad are named under the Service Squad picture.

CLASS PROPHECY

by SHERI HAWKINS

As I watched the mailman going down my walk, I proceeded to get my mail. The day was like any other normal day. Sorting out my mail, I found bills, letters, invitations----invitations? The invitation was of fine quality and on stunning gold paper. The invitation read:

Mr. David Reisig requests the pleasure of your company at a Reunion of the "66" freshman Class," to be held during July 10 - 16, 1986 on the S.S. Bazooka, Reisig Manor.

At the yacht many of my old friends appeared in casual and formal dress.

Many backbones of the United States came. Many backbones of the United States came right out of the "66" Freshman Class. SUSAN HALL and KATHY FRITZ were on the program with their famous S. and K. dresses nationally known. One of their models was none other than MARGARET ORTIZ. Next on the program was the world famous bachelor JOSEPH STOREY. Mr. Storey's topic was "How to be a Bachelor and Not Know It." Next on the program was a great opera singer MOSES LOMAN. Mr. Loman was world news a few weeks before, because of his slight case of laryngitis but was recovering well enough to perform.

The remaining time before intermission was taken up by a famous debating team. Their topic was "The Evils of Making Money." On the panel was RUTH JOHNSON, undersheriff of Saginaw, DAVID BILLINGSLEY, after 4 years at U of M's Law School, Attorney General of New York.

Intermission was very refreshing with free lunch, courtesy of the NICKLEBERRY Dairy Co. VON contributed all of the milk, ice cream, and butter that could be eaten. Also, TERRY BUNKER and wife NOLA STARK contributed all of the vegetables, courtesy of the "Bunkerosa." TOM BLOHM and wife, STEPHANIE SCHULTZ displayed their ability as bartender and "Playboy Bunny."

TOM WOODS and KAYE MINNICH were food tasters; they somehow maintained their slim physiques.

After an hour of lunch we were taken to a different part of the S.S. Bazooka to see the Gum-A-Go-Go girls and boys: MIKE ARCHER, MATTIE AUSTIN, BEVERLY BOGART, GLORIA BROOKS, SANDY GIBBONS, THESA JAURE, WILSON JONES, WALTER MARSH, president of the group; FRANKIE COLE, best girl dancer; JOHNNIE FENN, best boy dancer and Miss Coles partner. In the showcase was RUTH BLAKELY and FRED DINGMAN. While the GAGG kids were dancing we were interrupted by KATHY BLONDIN

TEACHERS QUOTATIONS

by Sheri Hawkins

Miss Lundbom: Quiet down there!!
Mr. Burt: Hi! (smile)
Mr. Stoner: What's your excuse?
Mr. Cummings: Bend over or take 3 detentions.
Mr. Bickel: So much for that!
Mr. Dunne: Quiet down and Sit Down!
Mr. Spiedel: Whoosta!
Mrs. Jenkins: Ready, 1,2,2.
Miss Ebeling: I'm marking citizenship--grades.
Mrs. Hardy: Get to class.
Mr. Rhodes: I'm a busy old woman.
Mr. Morren: Ha-Ha-Ha!
Mrs. Tivis: I'll give you a double E.
Mrs. Klempnow: Suspended and don't call us, we'll call you.

trying to sell cigars, cigarettes, and tiparells. Kathy was disguising herself to hide from BILLY HOLMES chief-catcher of the Traverse City Hospital.

On the vocal list was: famous showman CORDELL THOMAS, DEBWIN WILLIAMS, and main crooner, TONY ORTIZ. On the acting list was: M. T. THOMPSON and WILLIAM WOODS, doing their great and famous banjo skit. After the banjo act retreated, GLENN THOMPSON and RICK PERRY ran in as Batman and Robin. After being sure the guests were comfortable, KRIS FALLS and MARY BROWN, husband and wife janitory and janitress team, retired to play bridge with the cook and chef, DEBRA DRAKE and JOHN DAVIS.

Many couples have been to Justices of the Peace, HERMAN BELL and FELIPE REYES doing their job, after loafing in school. Among such marriages are: LORIE ELLIOTT to KEITH MARX, LINDA HANEY to DONALD McCURE, MARSHA HARRIS to HOWARD LIDDELL, SOPHIA ZAHAREOUS to BILL BAKER, and SHERI HAWKINS to MYRON HUDSON. Divorce Judges JOHN CARTER and FRANK VASQUEZ are kept busy by JACKIE JOHNSON and TENNISON BARRY--third time--ANNIE GARTH and MELVIN BARKLEY--second time. President HOWARD THOMAS showed up and took a weeks leave to have a good time from his dull job as Commander-In-Chief. He is the youngest single man to hold office.

Mr. Reisig's valet was TERRY LILLEY, a man said to have remarkable potential. Mr. Lilley had attended a school of law and flunked out. As Tuesday and Wednesday passed gloriously by, there was a couple of family feuds. For instance: SUE KOEHLER hit RICK PERRY over the head for looking at LYNNE WHITE. With parents like this, just imagine how their children are at Central this year.

CENTRAL'S HIGHLIGHTS

by Melanie Jo Woods

Each year as spring rolls around, Central's Parent-Teacher Association sponsors its annual school revue, called the Highlights.

The show was comprised of singing, dancing, and music, contributed by the students. The past 2 years the show was directed by Miss Mary Miles, the school librarian.

Central's Highlights ran 2 nights and a matinee so that everyone could get a sample of Central's talent.

PLAYNIGHT

by Freda Holmes

Playnight was held every Wednesday night from 7 to 9 P.M. It was considered to be the students night at Central. Students from Central came just to have fun. They were required to wear gym shoes because they danced and played on the gym floor.

The girls stayed in the girls gym and the boys stayed in the boys gym until 8 o'clock, then from 8 to 9 they met together in the girls gym and danced, sang, played, or what ever else they wanted to do.

CENTRAL'S SECRETARYS

by Dixie Slavin

Central has two secretaries; Mrs. Frye and Miss Williams. Throughout the school year they both work very hard doing work in the office. They type all of the many forms and records that are necessary to keep a school running smoothly.

Miss Williams has been working at Central for 24 years, and Mrs. Frye has been here for 13 years.

THE CHORUS

by Pat Laeding

The chorus is composed of 8th and 9th graders who are in Mrs. Jenkins vocal music classes.

The eighth and ninth grade choruses are under the direction of Mrs. Jenkins and performed at concerts, assemblies, a special program and any other occasion that happens to come along.

CHEER LEADERS

by Mary Gould

This year our cheerleaders were under the supervision of Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. Stevens.

The girls who cheered at basketball and volleyball games were: Lorie Elliott, Nancy Hall, Sarah Ham, Linda Haney, Natalie Kindred, Diane Rundell, Yolanda Villereal, and Sophia Zahareous.

PEP CLUB

by Sonya Jackson

Mrs. Hardy, one of our homemaking and hygiene teachers, and Mrs. Stephens, one of our English and hygiene teachers, started a "Pep Club" at Central Junior at the beginning of the school year. The pep club was organized to help the cheerleaders cheer and to back the teams up whether they were winning or losing.

The pep club consisted of seventh, eighth, and ninth graders who obtained a "C" or above in scholarship and citizenship and wanted to be in it.

The pep club members are listed under the picture of the pep club.
